Saints Show Us the Way to God

God is so good, that sometimes in addition to the mother and father of our birth, he gives us additional mothers and fathers to love and care for us. My extra parents were Dodie and Bill. When Bill turned 70, Dodie threw him a big party. In the middle of the party, we heard the sounds of a New Orleans Jazz Band approaching. As they got closer, everyone joyfully joined in the song: "Oh, when the saints go marching in; Oh, when the saints go marching in, Lord, I want to be in that number, when the saints go marching in!" Bill and Dodie, who lived Christian lives of prayer, love, and service, were truly two of God's great "little s" saints. I am quite sure that when each of them entered their promised heavenly home, they were "in that number," part of the Communion of Saints! This season, which we call Ordinary Time, can be made extraordinary by reflecting on the saints in our lives and the saints of the Church. Holy people from time immemorial offer us inspiration and hope. You can help your children understand how saints inspire by asking them about the people they know who show God's love, peace, and self-giving. Why do these people stand out for them? If your child is named after an individual, perhaps you could discuss why he or she was named after that person. My son Justin was given my husband Peter's middle name at birth. Peter was named Peter Justin in honor of Brother Justin, a beloved teacher who inspired the faith of my father-in-law, Mario. What do these name legacies offer us as families?

Why is it important that the Vanni family still remembers Brother Justin? In the Orthodox Church, the feast day of the saint after whom you are named is even more important than your birthday. Are your children familiar with the saints they were named after? Do they know their saints' days? You might ask your children if they admire any saints. You might take some time with the children to learn about a saint. Some saints to consider are St. Francis, St. Clare, St. Joan of Arc, St. Mary of Magdala, St. Ignatius, St. Benedict, and St. Scholastica. This is especially fun when someone in the family has been educated by a person who is part charism of an order established by one of our saints. Perhaps you would like to spend time with the children finding out more about the life and witness of the person your parish was named after. Discuss with your children how your community honors that spiritual legacy. Most of all try to impress upon your children that all of you share, as St. Paul tells us, Christ's "inheritance among the saints." The saints, little and big "s," all show us the way to God and our heavenly home.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

After healing the blind man in today's Gospel Jesus told him to go, to be on his way. But the man chose to follow Jesus. Being a disciple of Jesus is a choice. The stewardship way of life likewise involves a choice, in fact many choices. We choose to be grateful, we choose to live generously, and we choose to trust that God will always provide for our needs. These are three choices central to the stewardship way of life. What choices will we make this week that give witness to our decision to follow Jesus Christ?

Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Después de sanar al hombre ciego en el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús le dijo que se fuera, que siguiera su camino. Pero el hombre eligió seguir a Jesús. Ser discípulos de Jesús es una elección. La corresponsabilidad como una forma de vida implica una elección, de hecho, muchas elecciones. Elegimos ser agradecidos, elegimos vivir generosamente y elegimos confiar en que Dios siempre proveerá para nuestras necesidades. Estas son tres opciones centrales para la forma de vida de la corresponsabilidad. ¿Qué decisiones tomaremos esta semana que den testimonio de nuestra decisión de seguir a Jesucristo?

Prayer for Halloween

God of laughter and Joy,
We turn to you in the way of our ancient ancestors, grateful for the abundance of food and festivity that surrounds us at this time of year.
Keep all the children safe as they embark on their Halloween revels.

Light their way through the dark night and enfold them in love.
May the real treat in their lives be grace that multiplies in depth and breadth as they grow older.

We pray this with all the saints in heaven.
Amen.

Oración para Halloween

Dios de la risa y la alegría,
Nos dirigimos a ti como lo hicieron nuestros ancestros, agradecidos por la abundancia de comida y festividad que nos rodea en esta época del año.

Protege a todos los niños mientras se embarcan en
sus festejos de Halloween.

Ilumina su camino en la noche oscura
y envuélvelos en amor.

Que el verdadero regalo en sus vidas sea la gracia que se multiplica en profundidad y amplitud a medida que crecen.
Oramos esto con todos los santos del cielo.

Amén.
